Community Outreach & Donation Needs

Food Pantry Volunteering

Beginning World Changers will be conducting their food Pantry at First Presbyterian Church of Dunellen on April 24th at 12:00 pm.

Come be a part of helping our community through food distribution!

Questions? Please reach out to Frank Cunningham at 908-463-8005.

St. Paul's Food Pantry

St. Paul Lutheran Church continues to accept non-perishable foods.

April's Needs: Peanut Butter, Jelly

Thank you to ALL who continue to donate!

Fresh Start Period Initiative

Menstrual products, as well as children's diapers and pull-ups, are expensive as many of us know. Unsurprisingly, there is a HUGE need.

There is a bin in the Narthex labeled for this collection. Please consider donating these basic-need items. Thank you to ALL who continue to donate!

Plainfield Area Humane Society

The Humane Society continues to accept our donations of wet and dry pet food and is always in need of more.

Please consider donating additional items as well, such as small blankets and towels. Thank you to ALL who continue to donate!
